A Book for all Soldiers and all Parties.

THIS great work presents the only complete and impartial analysis of the Causes of the War yet published, and gives those interior lights and shadows of the great conflict only known to those high officers who watched the flood-tide of revolution from its fountain springs, and which were so accessible to Mr. Stephens from his position as a second officer of the confederacy.

The Great American War has AT LAST found a historian worthy of its importance, and at whose hands it will receive that moderate, candid and impartial treatment, which truth and justice so urgently demand.

HOOFLAND'S
GERMAN BITTERS,
AND
Hoofland's German Tonic.

THE GREAT REMEDIES
FOR ALL DISEASES OF
THE LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medically termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.
Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use

Hoofland's German Bitters.

Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use

Hoofland's German Tonic.

They are both equally good, and contain the same medical virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.
The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as it does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:

CONSTIPATION, FLATULENCE, INWARD PILES, FULLNESS OF BLOOD TO THE HEAD, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, NAUSEA, HEARTBURN, DISGUST FOR FOOD, FULLNESS OR WEIGHT IN THE STOMACH, SOUR ERUCTATIONS, SINKING OR FLUTTERING AT THE PIT OF THE STOMACH, SWIMMING OF THE HEAD, HURRIED OR DIFFICULT BREATHING, FLUTTERING AT THE HEART, CHOKING OR SUFFOCATING SENSATIONS WHEN IN A LYING POSTURE, DIMNESS OF VISION, DOTS OR WEBS BEFORE THE SIGHT, DULL PAIN IN THE HEAD, DEFICIENCY OF PERSPIRATION, YELLOWNESS OF THE SKIN AND EYES, PAIN IN THE SIDE, BACK, CHEST, LIMBS, ETC., SUDDEN FLUSHES OF HEAT, BURNING IN THE FLESH, CONSTANT IMAGININGS OF EVIL, AND GREAT DEPRESSION OF SPIRITS.

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries possesses true merit, is skillfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well-known remedies—

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS
AND
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JACKSON,
PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.
These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, Disease of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.

DEBILITY,

Resulting from any Cause whatever; PROSTRATION OF THE SYSTEM, induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposures, Fevers, &c.

There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eye, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

A PERSON ADVANCED IN LIFE,

And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, an elixir that will instil new life into the veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE.

It is a well-established fact that fully one-half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health; or, to use their own expression, "never feel well." They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.
To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the TONIC, is especially recommended.

WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN

Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, with which it is possible.
Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietors, but space will allow of the publication of but few. Those, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.

TESTIMONIALS.

Hon. Geo. W. Woodward,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pa., writes:
Philadelphia, March 16, 1867.
"I find 'Hoofland's German Bitters' is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system. Yours truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD."

Hon. James Thompson,

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.
Philadelphia, April 23, 1866.
"I consider 'Hoofland's German Bitters' a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect, JAMES THOMPSON."

From Rev. Joseph H. Kennard, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.
Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but will in order proof in various instances and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates St.

From Rev. E. D. Fendall,

Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philada.
I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from general debility, or from diseases arising from derangement of the liver. Yours truly,
E. D. FENDALL.

LADIES AS WORKS OF ART.

Professor Winston's lecture on this subject was delivered to a good audience of ladies and gentlemen, and abounding in strokes of satire and lively hits at the foibles of the fair sex, received many demonstrations of approval. The recitation of the following original verses formed an interesting feature of the entertainment, and was received with loud applause.—Norfolk Virginian.

CHARGE OF THE DRESS BRIGADE.

Half a league, half a league, half a league rearward,
Right through the mire and dirt,
Much to its beauty's hurt,
Dragg'd the rich silken skirt,
Half a league rearward.

Half a peck, half a pack, half a peck, fully,
Hirsute and woolly,
Right into the liquid air,
Rose up the pile of hair,
From other heads sundered.
Nobly astraddle on it,
Rode the brave bonnet—
Rode, though it wondered.
Curls to the right of it,
Curls to the left of it,
Curls to the rear of it,
Curls that were plundered.

What though men shout, "O! fie!"
"Our fortunes you've squandered!"
Their's not to make reply,
Their's not to reason why,
Their's but to dress or die—
"Charge!" to the clerks they cry—
"Charge by the hundred."

THE OLD RED SLEIGH.

After mother had gone to bed I went up stairs and brought down my writing desk. There were some sheets of paper and delicate envelopes, which had been there for months stored within, and a silver pen and pen handle which had been a birthday present in my school days.
I took them out, and the ink bottle also. The ink was thick, for we did not write much—either of us—and I brought the vinegar cruet from the closet and thinned it to my liking. Then I sat down and looked at the paper. Then I went to the stairs and listened to see that mother was not coming. Then I actually seated myself, squared my elbows, and began to write. This is what I wrote:
"DEAR MISS HARROW—I am a coward. Not, I hope, in one sense, but certainly as regards you. For a year I have loved you, yet, I no more would have dared to have said so than I would had you been a queen. Perhaps because I do not cherish a hope that you like me.
"To-morrow you and I will ride together. To-morrow I had made up my mind to try fate, but I know I shall not dare to speak, so I write. I will give you this letter to read at home. If the answer be 'No,' it will be easier for both of us. Will you try and think enough of me to be my wife one day?
"I love you better than I do my life, and I will do all man can to make life happy for you. With a little hope I can make my way in the world as other men do. I am young and strong, and not utterly ignorant. If I am to have that hope, give me some sign—give a line, your name only, anything to show me what you mean. If I am to be miserble; well, then make no answer. Silence shall shall mean 'no.' I could not bear to see you or speak to you after that.
"This is an awkward love letter, no doubt. I am not used to writting letters of any kind, of late. I never wrote or said a word of love to any one before. That must be its excuse. But were it ever so elegant it could not mean more, for I offer all the love in my heart, the only love I ever felt or shall ever know.
ALMON CRAIG."
I sealed this note in the daintiest envelope I possessed, and wrote Hepsey Harrow's name on the back, and hid it in the desk from mother's eyes; sharp eyes that looked after me anxiously as I drove away with old Dobbin and the little red sleigh the following evening.
She was ready for me. My mother's hint was in mind, and I looked at her dress. All I discovered was that it was blue; but her furs were good, and I could judge of furs.
"She must marry a rich man, or one on his way wealthward," I said. "She shall, too! I've more to start with than Washington had." And I tucked her into the sleigh and drove on to the meeting.
It was a pleasant drive, and a merry dance and supper; but as the time went on I felt glad that I had written a letter. For I could not have said what it said for me. It was at the last moment when we where driving homeward that I mustered courage to ask her for the little reticule she carried as the other girls did, with a brush and some flowers in it, I think, for they had to touch up their curls and braids after the windy ride, before the dance.
"Why do you want it?" she asked.
"To put something in it, which you must not look at till you reach home," I said.
"You arouse my curiosty," she answered. "I shall look the instant I have a lamp."
And as she spoke I had dropped in the letter and snapped the clasp.
Not a word more could I speak. But at the door I tried, for the first time to kiss her. Her lips eluded mine, and I dared not repeat the attempt.
I took the red sleigh home and waited, waited hopefully, as I knew afterwards, for an answer. None came; a day, a week, a month. Then all hope was over. I had seen her. She had given me a little, cold, smileless bow. I was rejected.
"Mother," I said that night, "we must have some one to farm the place. I'm going to some city."
"Why?" said she.
"To make my fortune," I said.
"For that girl—the school ma'am?" asked my mother bitterly.
"No," I said, "never for her."
Mother knelt down beside me as I sat on a low stool. She put her hands on my shoulder and looked in my face.
"She did not refuse you?" she said.
"Boy, I know you are in trouble. I'm your mother. Tell me."
"She did not accept me," I said.
"The haughty minx!" said my mother.
"I ——." Then she burst into tears.
"And that's to part us?" she said.
"Not if you'll go with me," I answered.
But she could not leave her home, and I went alone. In the frosty morning, as I turned to look back at the little village, from the top of the old stage, I saw the little children filing in at the school house door, and caught a glimpse of Hepsey's dress beyond; only a fold of her dress, but I knew it. The school bell was ringing; but it did not say "turn again" to me, as it should have done, had I been such a prophet as Whittington.
I made my fortune. I had a cousin in New York who was deep in the mysteries of Wall street. He helped me; so did Luck or Fate. In five years I was a moderately rich man. My mother wanted nothing but my presence. She would not come to me, but urged me to return to her.
At first my heart was too weak to be trusted among those old familiar scenes. To have met Hepsey would have been too much to bear. But time helps us all. At the end of five years I wrote to my mother:
"I am coming home again, since you will not live here with me. Expect me to-morrow."
And on the morrow I went. Mother had not altered much. But I had grown a long light beard, and was a youth no longer,—a fact which troubled her.—There were there changes, too. Girls were married—old people dead. The tallest, handsomest man I remembered, had met with an accident and crawled about a wretched cripple. The church was rebuilt, and the huts in the hollow had been burnt. A factory had risen, and the factory people's houses were about it. Instead of the old frame school house was a brick building with many windows and a cupola.
Who was the teacher? Was she there—Hepsey Harrow? I dared not ask.
Idly I sauntered about the house, painted and refurnished now, and idly, in the evening of my second day at home, I went out to the shed where the little red sleigh stood—the shabby old thing, with a green patch on the cushion.
"It ain't been touched since you left, Almon," said my mother. "Poor old Dobbin! How smart he used to take it round. I felt as if I'd lost a friend when he died. Remember my patching the cushion?"
She lifted it as she spoke. From behind it dropped something. What? Oh! leather, blue with mould, crushed by its lying under the cushion, but a reticule! I opened it. There lay a comb and brush; an artificial rose—how well I remembered it in her hair! and my letter. Yes, my letter, that she had never read, never seen, never known of.
"What's the matter, Almon?" asked my mother.
For a few moments I did not know. At last I spoke.
"It is Miss Harrow's reticule."
"She must have lost it when you took her a sleigh riding," said my mother. "Just like her, to lose it and not know it, extravagant critter. She's teaching yet; likely to—she ain't married; no doubt she'll be an old maid, and serve her right."
The rest mother said to herself, for I waited for no more.
I took the reticule in my hand and went over to the long-forgotten path toward the school house. School was over. A figure stood alone near the gate. I did not know it at first. But on a nearer view I found it was a more mature edition of Hepsey Harrow's slender frame; not so slender now but pretty—just as

Call for a Conservative Soldiers' and Sailors' National Convention.

The following call has been issued for a National Convention of Conservative Soldiers and Sailors, signed by the National Executive Committee appointed by the Cleveland (Ohio) Convention of September 17, 1866:

WASHINGTON, June 4, 1868.—In pursuance of a resolution of the National Executive Committee, appointed by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention which assembled on the 17th and 18th of September, 1866, a National Convention of all who served in the Union army and navy during the late rebellion, and who are anxious to arrest the country from the rule of the Radical party, is called to meet at New York City on the 4th day of July next. Delegations will be chosen from each State, in such manner and of such numbers as the several State Executive Committees may prescribe, and each delegation will cast, in all the proceedings of the Convention, the number of votes to which its State may be entitled in the Electoral College. General Grant is the candidate of the Radical party, which for three years past has prevented the accomplishment of nearly all the avowed objects of the war, and is intent on the destruction of the Constitution and the Union, and he will be no stronger before the people than the party he represents. If the Democrats and Conservatives cordially unite, and nominate against him a statesman, or a soldier whose record of patriotic services is as unquestioned as his own, the momentous issues between the two parties will then be fairly considered, and the reason, not the prejudice, of the people will determine their choice.

The purpose of this Convention is to advise and co-operate with the Democratic party, in presenting to the nation a candidate for President who will command the support of all who desire to extinguish the ravages of the war, abolish the military despotism now ruling in the South, and give to the Southern States the rights of self-government, and of an equal and paternal Union, and restore to the nation an economical and Constitutional government.

THE COMPILER FOR THE CAMPAIGN.

A Glorious Triumph Awaits Us!—Democrats, to Work Now!

The Radical nominations create no enthusiasm. The names of Grant and Colfax fall flat upon the public ear. We predict that the Democratic candidates chosen at New York on the 4th of July will electrify the white masses, and that Victory will perch upon our banners in November. But the campaign will be an active, a working one. No effort will be spared, as none should be, to rid the country of corrupt, tyrannical and destructive Radicalism. In this glorious work the COMPILER will take a full hand. In nothing that the editor can do, or his means afford, will it be behind its cotemporaries. In order, therefore, to enable us to do the more good, we have reduced our rates for the campaign (until after the Presidential election) to the following low figures:

Single copy, 75 cents; Five copies, $3; Ten copies, $5.

☞ As heretofore, any one of our present subscribers sending us the name of a new one, with $2 in cash, will receive a credit of fifty cents on his own subscription.

Democrats — Conservatives — all in favor of White Men ruling America—come up to this work at once. Spread the truth everywhere! Spread it now!

FIRST FRUITS!

Grant's nomination is producing a rich harvest of DEMOCRATIC VICTORIES.

Last week we had the gratification to announce a grand triumph in the State of Oregon—the election of a Democrat to Congress, (a gain,) and a large Democratic majority in the Legislature, with nearly all the county officers.

Since then another victory, equally significant though on a smaller scale, has been achieved. We refer to the election at GALENA, the home of Grant, which occurred on Friday last, and resulted in the success of the whole Democratic ticket by three hundred majority!

Another just reaches us. At Scranton, in this State, on Tuesday, the Democrats elected their City Treasurer by a majority of 338!—a gain of 143 since last year.

Their first fruits promise a full and glorious crop in November.

THE military despotism bill places the whole control of the political machinery in the Southern States in the hands of General Grant. Will he have the effrontery to use the dictatorial power which has been put in his hands by a Jacobinical Congress, for his own elevation? Will he use the bayonets directly in one-third of the States to secure electoral votes friendly to him? We shall see. In the meantime, public sentiment should thunder in his ears—"resign!"

CARL SCHURZ, the temporary Chairman of the Chicago Convention, called on Bishop Simpson to open the proceedings with prayer. Shurz is the Red Republican infidel who, in a public speech made a few years since at St. Louis, spoke of the Almighty as "the ideal gentleman beyond the skies, called by some people God!" He was a fit character to preside over a Radical National Convention.

THE Radical method of guaranteeing a Republican form of government to States of the Union, consists in taking the ballot out of the hands of white men and putting it in the hands of negroes, and keeping a standing army to crush the people!

THE Boston Post styles Grant and Colfax "the candidates of the Chicago Convention."

THE NEGRO AS A RULING ELEMENT.

The riots and disturbances which recently occurred in the Federal Capital, show how utterly incapable the negroes are of comprehending or exercising the duties of citizenship. Upon the day of the municipal election the few blacks who undertook to exercise the right of choice by voting a ticket which had not received the approval of the white Radical leaders and the mass of Bureau negroes, were set upon by overpowering mobs, and pursued and beaten until rescued by the officers of the law. Besides this, they have been threatened with death unless they depart from the city. Upon the night succeeding, and after irresponsible white scoundrels had secured possession of the ballot-boxes and stuffed them with fraudulent tickets for the Radical candidate, an immense crowd of vagrant negroes (principally paupers upon the public bounty and non residents from Maryland and Virginia) gathered upon the streets and gave themselves up to the most violent excesses. Two drug stores, a restaurant and several stores were assaulted with stones and robbed of considerable property. A white man, who, in a friendly way, endeavored to stop a dispute between two negroes, was beaten most shockingly and cut dangerously about the hips with a razor. Another white man who allowed himself to be drawn into an altercation with a negro, was cut upon the arm with a razor and died before the severed arteries could be secured. A large number of other white men were attacked by the black mob and driven from the streets, after being brutally maltreated. Scores of other excesses and outrages upon law and decency were committed by this band of lawless savages, which it is needless to particularize. The Metropolis police, who are Radicals, seemed to care little about checking the blacks, at least they managed to arrest the guiltless only and to allow the most culpable to escape.

These scenes of negro lawlessness and intolerance are but the precursors of more to come. As a contempory remarks, the negroes, bigoted, ignorant and arbitrary, cannot reason or comprehend the sacredness of individual opinion. He must be master or slave. He must be under sombody's feet or his feet will trample down all over whom his power extends. Such has been discovered to be his tendency in St. Domingo, Hayti, and in every country where the attempt has been made to establish pure negro government. The Radical leaders are aware of all this, but they close their eyes and ears to the facts, because the negro is now their ally and they are laboring merely for present supremacy. Without the use of the desperate political machinery which the black element furnishes to their hands, immediate discomfiture and ruin would overtake the Radical leaders. Hence, to retard the near approach of defeat; to brace up their falling structure of wrong and usurpation, and to secure a temporary prolongation of power, they are willing to bring debasement upon the ballot-box; prepared to make American citizenship a laughing-stock and reproach, and determined to plunge the whole country into a disastrous and bloody war of races. How long the Northern people will tolerate these infamous political schemes it is impossible to say, but that there is a day of retribution rapidly following in the wake of Sumner, Stevens, and the rest of the negro supremacy propagandists, no man can doubt. There is a gathering tempest of popular fury whigh, sooner or later, will burst upon them with uncontrollable power.

THE DESERTER ACT.—The case of Edward McCafferty against George Gruger, J. C. Dickinson and Alexander Ale, election officers of Warriorsmark township, Huntingdon county, who had refused to receive the plaintiff's vote, came before the Supreme Court on appeal from the Common Pleas of Huntingdon county, and was argued on Wednesday week, at Harrisburg.

It was admitted that McCafferty had been drafted and had failed to report, and that a certificate to that effect had been presented to the defendants, as provided in the act of June 4, 1866, which disfranchises those whose desertion is so certified to. The question of the constitutionality of this act of 1866 was the refore squarely presented.

The court reserved its decision, but the intimations thrown out by several of the Judges clearly indicate that the act will be pronounced unconstitutional; Justice Strong intimating that when the Constitution prescribes the qualifications of an elector, it is equivalent to a direct prohibition upon the Legislature to add any other qualifications.

FORNEY AND STEVENS—A PROPHECY.—Writing to one of his "two papers, both daily," on the close of the impeachment trial, Col. Forney, clerk of the "high court," made this prophecy:

Should the Senate of the United States fail to convict Andrew Johnson on the accusations of the House, not an electoral vote, with the exception of the vote of West Virginia, Missouri and Tennessee, will be given to Gen. Grant in the Southern States next November.

So Stevens prophesied: That "If the President was not convicted, the Radical candidate would carry but two Northern States — Massachusetts and Vermont."

WESTERN OPINION OF COLFAX.—Out in the West, where Schuyler Colfax, the Radical candidate for Vice President, is best known, the people have not a very exalted opinion of him. The Chicago Times says:

"The American people—those that inhabit the West, at any rate—need not be told who Schuyler Colfax is. He is a politician of the smallest calibre of any that ever gained, by toadyism or good luck, a newspaper puff beyond the county he lives in. With Grant, the man of no principles, at the head, and Colfax, the man of no brains, at the tail, the Jacobin ticket is a very perfect arrangement."

GREELY is now for Grant, but he wasn't when he wrote the following: "More soldiers were uselessly slaughtered in the late war through the blunders of drunken officers than by the bullets of the foe." When the editor of the Tribune dealt Grant this blow between the eyes he was for Chase; but having gone over to Grant, we ask whether the Tribune's change has changed Grant from a "butcher" and a "drunkard" to something else?

BEFORE the acquittal of the President the Church Union, a thoroughly Radical organ, said: "Let the Republican party make its will, and let this nation prepare to see the seventh seal opened upon this continent, if the Senate of the United States refuses to convict the traitor at Washington." The Senate did refuse, and the white people have made the will of the Republican party.

DAN. SICKLES, Ben. Butler, John W. Forney and John A. Logan are now the leaders and managers of the Radical party.

THE wheat harvest has commenced in Mississippi and Arkansas.

RADICAL CORRUPTION FUND.

The State Guard, the Radical Curtin organ at Harrisburg, a few days ago made the following surprising declaration:

"We do not hesitate to assert, and we do it boldly, that money has controlled the nominations of the Republican party in Dauphin county for the last six years—that delegates to our county conventions, sent from townships to represent the will of the people, have been bought in Harrisburg to serve the purpose of the ring which is now controlling the politics of the county. It may seem terrible to make these statements, but they are true. The people have a right to know that such are the practices of our party—that those who want all the honors and assume all the control of our party, are only so many corrupt, vile, selfish demagogues, who would, at any time, sell their political birth-right for a mess of office pottage. It must be remembered that, at the lowest calculation, the ring in Dauphin county divided among its members during the war, a million and a half of dollars—that this money is in the hands of men who are always willing to purchase delegates to suit their purposes, and that when one of their associates is placed in power, no man outside the ring is regarded as of the least importance, while all Republicans, however honest and respectable, are treated with contempt, after their votes have been controlled to put these creatures into power."

One million and a half of dollars in six years is two hundred and fifty thousand dollars annually. This is the sum the new Radical organ says the Radical party leaders have each year expended to buy votes and hold Dauphin county in the toils of negro Radicalism. Is it true? asks the Patriot & Union, and then remarks: We do not know, but true it is that there are a number of wealthy Radicals in Harrisburg, who before the war were poor—some of them very poor. The Democratic public suspect that a large proportion of their property was secured through dishonest practices as speculators in the necessities of the Government, and as Government and State officers, contractors and agents, but not having access to private official records, they cannot bring charges or even roughly estimate the plunderings. The proprietors and editors of the new Radical organ, however, were within, if not of the "ring" of corruptionists during that whole period, and we do not doubt their ability to name the individuals who divided the spoils and the amount apportioned to or secured by each one. They could not sum up the plunderings without being aware of the various items and transactions. Possessing this knowledge, it is their plain duty, therefore, to the people and to their professions of honesty and reform, to make a clean breast of the whole disgraceful record. If they neglect or refuse to do so, they must make up their minds to be charged by the public with an attempt, through these general charges, to extort "black mail" from the corruptionists. If they drop the subject now, after such positive declarations, the people will be forced to the conclusion that the spoilers have compounded with them. Having thus placed themselves in a position from which there is no honorable line of retreat, they had better go forward with their exposure. They must not only tell who "divided" this million and a half of dollars during the past six years, but they must also tell why they treasured till this time, their guilty knowledge against the leaders of their "grand moral idea" party. The public—especially the people of Dauphin county—demand an explanation and exposure of all who have been so disreputably engaged.

HOW THEY GRAB SPOILS.—The New York Post (Radical) says the subsidies or aid in money asked from the present Congress for railroad and navigation purposes amount to the enormous sum of $268,250,000. Think of that, taxpayers—two hundred and sixty-eight millions two hundred and fifty thousand dollars worth of public lands to be swept into private pockets! This is exclusive of the hundreds of millions of dollars worth already donated to such corporations. No wonder the Rump conspirators violate the Constitution, their oaths, and everything honorable and honest, to maintain themselves and their faction in power, when the value of empires hangs upon their votes, and millions of dollars lie waiting their acceptance. Oh, that the people could be made to see the infamous schemes of corruption that are almost daily passed through the Rump Congress. They would boil with indignation, and make this country too hot to hold Representatives who now stand in high estimation.—Reading Gazette.

HON. JOHN A. MALSON, of Indiana, an old line Whig, and lately a Republican, is out with a letter denouncing the mad schemes of the Washington Radicals. He says he is not and never has been a Democrat, but his sympathies were always with the Republicans until they made war upon the President, in which he would not acquiesce. He denounces Butler and the other impeachers, and lauds the Chief-Justice and the conservative Senators.

AFTER seven years of failure in measures of practical finance, the Radical leaders, in their platform, try to palm off promises for the future upon the country. It won't do. If a party cannot succeed, after seven years of experimenting, in putting the Government upon a good and true financial basis, it is time for it to stand aside for that good old party whose precepts in political economy elevated our country to rank among the first and most powerful of nations.

THE Maine Reds sent one hundred and eight delegates to the "soldyers" convention—30 generals, 25 colonels, 21 majors and 30 captains. The "high privates" who went to the front and fought the battles were left at home to chop saw logs.

THE fact has just been brought out that Wm. B. Mann, the district attorney for Philadelphia, (a city officer,) receives a salary of $32,100. This includes a large amount of perquisites, and is $7,000 more than the President of the United States receives. He has held the office for several years under a Radical administration, and his own political friends, who oppose his re-election, are showing up his large income.

WHEN the impeachment business commenced, we warned our Radical friends that before they were through with it, they would be heartily sick of the whole matter, and they are now inclined to think we were a true prophet.

SOMEBODY pithily say that Grant is on neither side of one-half of the questions of the day, and on both sides of the other half.

THE Charleston Mercury, Lynchburg Republican, Petersburg Index, Mobile Register, New Orleans Picayune, and the Memphis Avalanche are all in favor of Gen. Hancock for President.

THE tickets voted by the Washington negroes of the Freedmen's Bureau on Monday week, were embellished with Grant's picture. Another cold fact for the people.

IMPEACHMENT is, christened "Lost Cause Junior."

FUNERAL OF EX-PRESIDENT BUCHANAN.

Immense Procession—Imposing Ceremony.

LANCASTER, Pa., June 4.—The funeral of Ex-President Buchanan was the most imposing ceremony ever witnessed in this county. The cortege extended all the way from his home at Wheatland to this city, a distance of a mile and a half. Delegations from New York, Baltimore, Harrisburg, Philadelphia, York, Pa., Reading, Pottsville, and from the National Congress, as well as from associations, benevolent, political and otherwise, walked over the route. About three thousand persons were in the line of procession. The family carriage of Mr. Buchanan conveyed his immediate mourners, including Mrs. Johnston (formerly Miss Lane,) and the Rev. Edward Buchanan, the only brother of the deceased, was present with his entire family. The mansion at Wheatland was thrown open to the public, and the body was exposed in the hall, while the family waited in the room in which Mr. Buchanan died. The ex-President was dressed in a satin shroud, white neck-tie and high collar, as in life. His face looked very natural and expressive. The coffin and hearse were of a solid, plain character, according to the directions of Mr. Buchanan himself. A band of music played a funeral march on the way to the grave. The Masons assisted through out the ceremony, and their burial service accompanied the religious rites. All denominations of clergymen assisted at the grave, but the immediate ceremony was read by Rev. John W. Nevin. Wreaths of laurel, ivy and "immortelles" were deposited upon the coffin. The funeral was not merely a political ceremony. It was remarked that the leading Republicans of the county did equal honor to the ex-President with his old party associates. The bells of all the churches tolled during the passage of the procession, business was universally suspended, and the people crowded the streets thro' which the body passed to Woodward Hill Cemetery, the place of burial, which stands on the edge of the town, in an opposite direction from Wheatland. It was crowded by a respectful assemblage of people, before the procession arrived.

Mr. Buchanan gave explicit directions in regard to his funeral, to his executor, on the Saturday preceding his decease. He requested that there should be no large or expensive monument erected over his remains, but that there should be a simple but substantial oblong tomb erected, the capstone to be of the finest and most durable marble, on which he specially requested there should be cut, in Roman letters, the following inscription, and nothing more: "Here rest the remains of James Buchanan, fifteenth President of the United States. Born in Franklin county, Pennsylvania, April 23, 1791. Died at his residence, at Wheatland, Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, on ——," adding the day of my death, now so near (which was June 1, 1868.) In the same interview with his executor, who was one of his intimate friends, he said: "The principles of the Christian religion were instilled into my mind in my youth, and from all I have observed and experienced in the long life Providence has vouchsafed to me, I have only become more strengthened in my conviction of the divine character of the Saviour, and the power of atonement through His redeeming grace and mercy." At the conclusion of the interview, he remarked, in reply to an expressed hope that he might yet live to see the country fully restored to peace and prosperity, and his career completely vindicated: "My dear friend, I have no fear of the future. Posterity will do me justice; I have always felt and still feel that I discharged every public duty imposed upon me conscientiously. I have no regret for any public act of my life, and history will vindicate my memory from every unjust aspersion."

The will of Mr. Buchanan will be opened to-morrow. He is understood to have left a legacy to the poor of the City of Lancaster. His estate is computed at $300,000. His last words were, "Oh, Lord Almighty—as Thou wilt."

Honors to the Late Ex-President Buchanan.

NEW YORK, June 4.—Out of respect to the memory of ex-President Buchanan, the various public offices were closed today in this city, flags were half-masted at the City Hall and other public buildings, as well as from the places of business of several private citizens. The courts adjourned at an early hour. Portions of the City Hall were draped in mourning.

BALTIMORE, June 4.—In accordance with a resolution of the City Councils, the bells were tolled from three to five P. M., to day, in respect to the memory of Mr. Buchanan. The Custom House and other government officers were closed.

BOSTON, June 4.—The flags are at half-mast to-day, in respect to the funeral of Ex-President Buchanan. A national salute was fired.

NEW ORLEANS, June 4.—The United States courts and government offices were closed to-day in respect for the memory of James Buchanan.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—In the United States Senate, Mr. Buckalew stated that the funeral of ex-President Buchanan would take place at his late residence, near Lancaster, to-day, and that as a mark of respect, he moved that the Senate adjourn. The motion was adopted, with only one dissenting voice (Mr. Pomeroy, of Kansas;) and thereupon the Senate, at twelve o'clock and fifteen minutes, adjourned, without transacting any legislative business. The departments, the banks, and many other places of business in the city are closed to-day, out of respect to the memory of the lamented ex-President. The public buildings are draped in morning, and the flags on the same, and throughout the city, are at half-mast.

EX-PRESIDENT BUCHANAN.

The papers of all parties, with a few exceptions, pay appropriate tributes to the memory and services of the late Ex-President Buchanan. The Philadelphia Ledger, in giving an interesting sketch of his life, remarks:

In his manners, M. Buchanan was a courtly and polished gentleman of the old school of American statesmen. Besides his acquaintance with the ancient classics, he read and spoke several modern languages. He was an expert in the laws of nations. He was not only an able debater, but a clear and forcible writer, habituated by long practice to committing his thoughts and views to paper with great ease and rapidity. He was regular and methodical in all his habits, rising at six o'clock in the morning, and having every part of the day regularly allotted to its particular work, duty or leisure, until his hour for retiring, which was invariably ten o'clock. In his home life at Wheatland his manners were kind and genial, and his habits essentially domestic, although thoroughly hospitable. He made it a practice to visit all his neighbors of every station of life in the surrounding country in his regular evening walks, chatting with them about their home affairs, and was personally much beloved by them all. And last, though most important to him now, it is due to his memory to say, that under all the craft of the statesman there was a vein of religious devotion in his private life, concealed from all but those who knew him well, or who lived in his house, and this may stand him in stead, now that he has passed away from the strifes as well as the honors of this world.

IT is worthy of remark, especially by the tax-payers, that the Annual Appropriation bill passed by the General Assembly of Ohio this year, is almost a million of dollars less than it was last year, when it was Republican.

THE Boston Post, which recently declared in favor of General Hancock as the Democratic candidate for the Presidency, now urges the Hon. Charles Francis Adams for the Vice-Presidency.

APROPOS.—A friend asked another what the initials B. F. B. meant? (referring of course to Butler). The answer was, Big Fat Beast! The most appropriate title which has yet been given to Apple Blossom Spoons!

IN a late speech at Boston, Wendell Phillips, the pioneer of Radicalism, declared that the Radical candidate for President "cannot stand up before a glass of liquor without falling down."

Local Department.

TOWN, COUNTY AND SURROUNDING COUNTIES.

New Enterprise in Adams County.—It affords us real pleasure to announce that the manufacture of a valuable fertilizer has been commenced in this county.—Messrs. Benson & Maus have gone into this business at Littlestown, and from a specimen from their establishment before us, we are led to anticipate the very best results from its application to the different crops. They have named it the "Conowago Phosphate." With raw bone as the basis, its use by our farmers will secure lasting benefit to their lands, whilst it has sufficient stimulating properties to produce immediate effect. A good Phosphate is what is needed, and such we believe this to be.

Dr. Benson is a thoroughly informed chemist, and fully understands the relation of this beautiful and useful science to agriculture, in all its ramifications. He is likewise an entirely reliable gentleman, and the same may be said of his partner, Mr. Maus. They have started what we believe will prove an enterprise of great value to the farming community, and cannot doubt that they will meet with ready and liberal encouragement. They intend to enlarge their works shortly, so as to ensure a full supply of the Phosphate for use in seeding the fall crops. In the meantime, such as intend sowing buckweat should not fail to apply it.

Particular attention is directed to the advertisement of Messrs. Benson & Maus, in another column.

Locusts.—The locusts have appeared above ground and their peculiar music is becoming somewhat "numerous."—They are not expected to be as plenty as in 1851, and we do not believe they will. Those who have studied their habits pronounce them harmless, except on the more tender branches of fruit and other trees, and in this respect their operations can effect no permanent injury. No damage to the growing grain need be feared from them. So, in the language of the Butler Herald, "let them come—they can't hurt a printing office much."

Big Hauling.—The fine six mule team of Michael Fiscel, of Mountjoy township, recently hauled to the brickyard east of town, from M B. Miller's wood lot, on the Wolf Hill, forty-two and half cords of oak and pine wood, at eleven loads—very nearly four cords to each load. The team made three trips every day, and one day four. The distance is fully two miles and a half. No one will dispute that this was big hauling.

Ignored.—Several months ago, a U. S. Revenue detective made his appearance in this place, and closed up the vinegar establishment of Mr Adam Diehl, on the allegation of illicit distillation of whisky. Mr. Diehl was taken by surprise, but conscious of his innocence went promptly and voluntarily before Judge Watts, U. S. Commissioner, at Carlisle, and entered bail to answer the charge. We notice that the case was called in the U. S. Circuit Court in Philadelphia last Friday, and there being no evidence to sustain it, the bill was ignored by the Grand Jury, the United States to pay costs. We congratulate Mr. Diehl on this vindication of his integrity.—Star.

Campaign Subscribers.—We are obliged to ask friends who send us campaign subscribers to accompany the names with the cash. We keep no book accounts of subscriptions for less than one year, and as it is our invariable rule to stop sending to campaign subscribers as soon as the time has expired, we cannot conveninly make charges of the amounts.

Arm Broken.—Mrs. Powers, wife of Solomen Powers, of this place, met with a paluful fracture of the arm, above the wrist, in Baltimore, on Thursday last. Visiting Druid Hill Park, and crossing a ravine on a foot bridge, by some means she tripped, falling from the bridge, and breaking an arm.

Removals.—Messrs. Soper & McCartney have taken the room on Baltimore st., first square, recently occupied by David Klinmiller, and fitted it up as a Jewelry Store. Mr. Klinmiller has removed his Shoe Shop to the room vacated by Soper & McCartney, on York street, and intends keeping City shoes besides home-made work.

Sub-Contract.—Mr. Samuel Herbst, of this place, has taken a sub-contract for carrying the mail between this place and Westminster. We understand it is his intention to put a two-horse coach on the road.

Strawberry Festival.—We understand that the Ladies design having a Strawberry and Ice Cream Festival in Agricultural Hall, on Thursday evening, the 18th inst., for the benefit of the Memorial Church enterprise. Besides Strawberries and Ice Cream, there will be a full supply of Cakes, &c. A pleasant time may be expected. Aside from the delicacies to be served up, the cause itself appeals strongly to the liberality of our citizens, and we hope to see everybody on hand, with plenty of small change.

Summer having came at last, everybody is laying aside their winter rig and substituting more comfortable clothing. Now is the time to get Ready-made Clothing, and Francis Cunningham's, opposite the "Star and Sentinel" office, just the place to get them. He has the largest stock ever opened in Gettysburg, and sells at prices that can't be beat. Call and examine for yourselves. 2t

Hubbard's Combined Self-raking Reaper and Mower.—For sale by Henry Thomas & Son. This machine has two driving wheels, hinged joint and folding bar. The self-raker can be controlled by the driver, and a full sheaf made in all kinds of grain. If desired, the self-raker can be adjusted to deliver a sheaf at every revolution of the rakes, without any aid from the driver. We deem it unnecessary to give any further description, but refer all wishing to purchase to those farmers who bought last season. tf

Housekeepers and others wanting good Cooking Stoves, the best in the market, warranted to bake and give satisfaction, or any thing in line of Tin Ware, Japan Ware, Hollow Ware, Chamber Sets, Bread and Spice Boxes, Ice Cream Freezers, Water Coolers, Coffee Mills, Bird Cages, Fruit Jars and Cans, Waiters, &c., &c, will find just what they want at the Ware-room of Col. C. H. Buehler, corner of Railroad and Carlisle street, opposite the Passenger Depot, and at prices which defy competition. tf

Just Received—a large assortment of splendid Gold and Silver Watches, by Soper & McCartney, opposite the old Bank, in York street, Gettysburg tf

Wire Teeth Hay Rakes, of best make, for sale during the season, by Wm. Wible.

THE Radical journals are silent on the Oregon election and the negro delegates in the Chicago Convention. They evidently feel that they are not equal to these gloomy subjects.

A Full Assortment.—The attention of Farmers, Builders, Contractors, and others is invited to the large assortment of LUMBER of all kinds suitable for building purposes, to be found at COL. C. H. BUEHLER'S Lumber Yard, at corner of Carlisle and Railroad streets, including Boards, Planks, Flooring, Siding, Laths, Pickets, Shingles, &c. Also Posts, hewed and sawed, with prime Fencing Boards, white Pine and Hemlock. His stock is not only large, but his arrangements are such that he can sell at the very lowest cash rates. Also, constantly on hand, Blacksmith, Lime-burners' and Stove COAL. tf

DeMott & Ward's United Menagerie and Circus.—The young gentlemen whose names form the caption of the firm of the above mentioned institution are both well and most favorably known to the public as eminent performers. By merit and industry they have acquired sufficient to enable them to start an enterprise of their own upon a firm basis. They know practically what a good performance is worth to an establishment, and how far a commendable entertainment ensures success. They have an entire new outfit, and are enabled to make a good display upon the road, but not depending upon that alone, they have secured a troupe of ladies and gentlemen artistes whose performances will not only create a sensation but give the establishment a proud and permanent reputation. To these people they have added a Zoological divertisement of a clever and moral nature. They have rare beasts, the majority of which have been so trained that they can be introduced with satisfaction into the arena. These are the Performing Bears of Old Grizzly Adams, a Leaping Buffalo, a Hindoostan Bull, a fine corps of Dogs, Apes, Monkeys, Baboons, and a den of ferocious denizens of the Tropics. The stock of Horses, Ponies, and Mules are of excellent quality, and the pole-to-day backed by youth, merit, ambition and originality must prove remunerative to its proprietors and acceptable to its patrons. It will be here to-morrow. It

A Noble Article.—The testimony of intelligent men and women in favor of any given thing, cannot be thrown aside and regarded as worthless. Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters have received the endorsement and cordial approbation of the most eminent men in this and other communities. The human system, very often needs a Tonic to strengthen it, and to aid in the performance of its functions when it becomes debilitated. The German Bitters does this, and possesses the additional advantage of being non-intoxicating. For the cure of Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, and all diseases of the nervous system, it is unequalled, and is recommended by physicians of the highest standing. The wonderful sale which this article has, is of itself a sufficient guarantee of its surpassing excellence. "Hoofland's German Bitters" contains no Liquor of any description

Hoofland's German Tonic, is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with pure Santa Cruz Rum, orange, anise, &c., making a preparation of rare medicinal value. The Tonic is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in cases where some Alcoholic Stimulant is required.

The great amount of time consumed by the ladies in dressing and arranging their hair must make any article which would lessen their labor particularly desirable. Ring's Vegetable Ambrosia leaves the hair in such condition as to render the dressing and arranging a very easy matter. It imparts to it that splendid glossy appearance so much admired, cleanses the scalp from dandruff and all humors, and prevents baldness; promotes its growth, and restores gray hair to its original color. June 12. 1m.

A Family Remedy.—No family should be without some efficacious remedy for the cure of affections, so universally prevalent, as coughs, colds, sore throat, whooping-cough, and croup—some remedy, too, which can be relied upon as safe, sure and certain. Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry combines this desideratum. It

Radical Restoration—Its good effects are permanent. It not only restores the color of the hair, but the quantity and natural glossiness. This is said by every one using Mrs. S. A Allen's Improved (new style) Hair Restorer or Dressing, (in one bottle). Every Druggist sells it. Price One Dollar 1m

LET US HAVE PEACE.

General Grant concludes his letter of acceptance with the words, "let us have peace." The people, very forcibly remarks the Lancaster Intelligencer, are determined to have peace, and they know how to get it. They will put men in power who will not stand in the way of its blessed coming—they will vote for a Conservative candidate for President, and will send to Congress men who can be trusted to make a permanent and lasting peace between all sections of our distressed country. Their full industry and trade will revive; taxes will be lightened; the burthens will be lifted from the oppressed shoulders of labor; prosperity will revisit the whole land, and under the mild sway of a genuine peace, the nation, taking a new lease of life, will move proudly forward in its glorious career. The people not only pray for peace, but they intend to work for it and to vote it.

THE ELECTION RETURNS.—It is worthy of remark that every election which has been held since the nomination of General Grant for the Presidency, exhibits Democratic gains and Radical losses. The notion that General Grant's popularity as a military man would seduce Democrats to abandon their principles, and support negro equality and military despotism, proves a complete mistake; on the contrary, the Democratic party is daily growing stronger by the accession of the honester and more intelligent portion of the Republicans, who find that their leaders are constantly violating the principles hypocritically professed by the Convention which nominated Lincoln and Hamlin at Chicago in 1860.—Age.

THE HARRISBURG PATRIOT.—The Patriot & Union establishment has been purchased by Messrs. B. F. Meyers, (of the Bedford Gazette,) J. W. Brown and D. W. Moore, by whom the paper will hereafter be published. It now appears under the title of the Morning Patriot, in a greatly enlarged form, and exhibits extraordinary spirit and ability in every department. Judging from the numbers issued by the new proprietors, we predict for the Patriot high rank among inland dailies. The Democracy of the Keystone may well be proud of so vigorous and earnest an organ at the State Capital. Success to it in every way.

HONORS TO SENATOR FESSENDEN.—A number of leading Republicans in Boston propose to give a public dinner to Senator Fessenden, as an endorsement of integrity and independence in voting against the conviction of the President. Governor Bullock will preside, and Jas. Russell Lowell, ex-Governor Washburne, President Hill, of Harvard College, and other prominent Republicans will be present.

Gen. Custer, a delegate from Missouri, and Horace Greeley's pet, who sold himself to the Republican party some years since for $1,200, has been convicted of extensive whisky frauds in New York, and sentenced by the court to the penitentiary for the period of two years, and $10,000 fine.

For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Asthma, Influenza, Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Predisposition to Consumption, &c., &c.
This great remedy is too well known and is performing too much good to make it necessary to go into an elaborate discussion of its merits. Suffice to say that it still maintains its supremacy in curing diseases of the most obstinate character, and that all who suffer from the above complaints, after having tested this remedy, seldom have occasion to resort to other appliances to ensure a perfect restoration to health.

THE DEMOCRATIC CONSERVATIVE NATIONAL CONVENTION.—The New York World has the following in relation to several delegations to this Convention, to meet in that city on the 4th of July:

Irving Hall has been engaged by the State Central Committee of Pennsylvania for the convenience of the delegation from the Keystone State, and Masonic Hall will furnish sleeping quarters for the entire Pendleton escort, which is to number over 500 men. The Hancock men will congregate at the Astor House in large numbers. Five hundred delegates and their friends are expected at the Astor House. Accommodations have been made at the St. Nicholas Hotel for 1,200 persons. The Chase men, and supporters of Governor English, of Connecticut, will be found at this hotel principally. At the Southern and New-York Hotels preparations on a grand scale are being perfected for delegates from the border and Southern States. The Everett House is negotiating with the Vermont delegation.—The Pendleton men will aggregate themselves at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. Colonel Wooley, of Cincinnati, has secured rooms for the West Virginia delegation at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. The New York State delegation, numbering sixty-five persons, marshaled by Mr. Samuel J. Tilden, will stop at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. Committee and caucus rooms have been engaged at the hotels named from the 1st of July until the close of the convention, which will begin its session on the 4th of July. It will cost each delegate about seven dollars a day to live in this city during the convention, including the necessary trifling expenses of the barber and bootblack fees and car fare. Many leading statesmen and politicians have engaged rooms at the different hotels from the 20th and 25th of June until the close of the convention. The admirers of Charles Francis Adams, from Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Vermont, will repose at the Clarendon Hotel. Tammany Hall will be fully ready by the 25th of June.

THE GROWING CROPS.—Our exchanges throughout Ohio, Michigan and Illinois all speak in glowing terms of the prospects of abundant harvests. The grasses and the fruits too could not be looking better.

GRANT knows nothing of that ardent and enthusiastic spirit which inspires enthusiasm in others.

THE GREAT CONOWAGO PHOSPHATE,

PREPARED BY

C. W. BENSON, M. D.,

LITTLESTOWN, PA.

THE Conowago Phosphate is destined to stand at the head of American Fertilizers. It has already proved its SUPERIOR QUALITIES, and simple certificates of its high merits will soon be furnished to the public. The proprietors will spare no means or pains to make it a reliable and uniform article. It is superior to Peruvian Guano, because it is MORE LASTING IN ITS EFFECT and EQUAL TO IT ON THE FIRST CROP. It does not over-stimulate the soil, as most of the fertilizers in the market do, and leave the land after gathering the first crop in a worse condition than before using it, but it remains an active fertilizer in the soil, and continues year after year to show itself on every crop that is put in the land.

The Conowago Phosphate contains a large percentage of Ammonia and Phosphoric acid, which are essential elements to vegetable food. They either enter directly into the plant or prepare the alkalies in the soil to do so. The base of the Conowago Phosphate is PURE RAW BONE, completely and thoroughly dissolved without the use of any volatile agent.

One of the great advantages of the Conowago Phosphate is that it will dissolve the sand in the soil and set this alkali free to be assorbed by the growing plants, which is a very important ingredient in giving firmness and strength to the stalk and grain. It will prevent the falling and lodging of crops that are forced up by a wet and warm season, and will greatly facilitate the ripening of the grain and secure it against the rust.

Agencies are being established throughout the country wherever fertilizers are sold. We are not afraid to place it beside the best in the country.

Let all the farmers and planters make up their minds that they will try the Great Conowago Phosphate this fall.

Price Fifty Dollars per ton.

BENSON & MAUS,
Proprietors.

☞ The Conowago Phosphate being made very fine, and, therefore, light, makes it more convenient to use in the drills, and mixes more freely with the soil. All farmers know the advantage of fine fertilizers.

CLOVER HAY.

We have, for some years past, advocated the cutting of clover for hay at an earlier stage of its progress than is common in this country. The usual indications of fitness for the scythe is the browning of the blossoms to the extent of one-half or two-thirds; but it is by no means uncommon to leave it, under press of other work, much beyond those points. The consequence is too great hardening of the woody stems, and a great and incurable damage done the quality of the hay by the rotting of the lower leaves. These fill the hay with that impalpable dust so distressing to horses, and, highly nutritious and valuable as otherwise it would be, makes it unfit food for them. We have urged, therefore, the harvesting of the crop when it has come pretty well into flower, without further delay. That this is the proper period for cutting, we may take a hint of from the bees and other insects. When they begin to operate on the clover blossoms, it is a sign that sugar has been elaborated. If the clover be not then cut, the sugar goes to perfect the seed, and is lost to the hay.

An experiment made some years ago by Professor Horsford seems decisive as to the point that it is to be cut neither before nor after the period of full development of bloom. He found that clover cut at the surface of the soil when the heads just began to appear, produced only 0.90 per cent. of sugar. Clover cut when the heads were fully developed produced 1.15 per cent. of sugar, very nearly fifty per cent. more than that cut first.

An important incidental advantage of the earlier cutting is, that we get a week or more of time in which we may take advantage of the good weather, and so secure the crop with less risk of exposure to rains—a very desirable point. Hay cured thus early is more nutritious, more delicate, more apt to be well cured, and sooner put out of the way of damage from exposure. It favors very much, too, the second or seed crop, by giving it the opportunity of getting well started before the excessive heats of summer.

Green clover contains, when first cut, from seventy-five to eighty-three per cent. of water. It contains also a certain amount of sugar, which is easily fermented. Therefore, if cut and placed in a barn or stack, should fermentation be produced, it will destroy the sugar and other nutritious qualities, and vinegar or acid will be produced, rendering the hay sour and unfit for food. If sufficiently dried, the sugar will remain with the fibre, and the hay will be nutritious, wholesome food for stock, and supply the animals with not only food, but an element (carbon) which will generate animal heat. It will, from this view, be seen how important is a proper curing of the hay.

No rule can be given as to the length of time which clover should be allowed to dry in the sun and air before it is put up, because much will depend upon the previous condition of the weather, the dryness of the ground, and the quantity of water the clover may contain, but a point should be made of not having the leaves destroyed by too much drying in the sun. In favorable weather, a few hours' wilting is sufficient, before putting it into small cocks, which, after standing a day, may be thrown open and taken at once to the mow. But the process of curing demands especially the eye of the master, and no advice can be implicitly followed. It must be matter for the exercise of his own good judgment.—American Farmer.

A BEE QUESTION.

At a late meeting of the American Institute Club this question was propounded: "Is fruit injured by the honey-bee extracting honey from the fruit blossoms?" No response was made to the inquiry by the Institute Club, but the Essex Institute, Salem, Mass., was less reticent. Mr. Putnam, a member, took the matter up and contended "that the visit of the bees to the blossom was a positive benefit as far as it caused the distribution of pollen from blossom to blossom. The removal of the honey it was not probable was a loss to the blossom; Mr. Goodell recalled an article in the Naturalist, in which the writer hinted that it was part of the divine economy to put a little honey into each flower to tempt the bees to come and get it, and at the same time pay for the honey—a fair bargain—by the labor performed in transmitting the pollen." While taking the side of the bees, on this question, Mr. P. was free to admit that they were bold and persistent thieves, taking sugar or anything sweet without permission asked, and ready to fight on the least hint of trespassing on the rights of property.

Hilling up Potatoes.—The Cottage Gardener, of London, says earthing up potatoes diminishes the produce and retards the ripening of the tubers. Long experiments in England have proved this fact, that hilling up the potato will reduce the crop one-fourth. Our farmers must, however, remember that the correctness of this theory depends on the nature of the soil. The potato likes not wet feet. If there is that danger, better plant shallow, and hill up.

A correspondent of the Country Gentleman writes to that paper on the way to have pure cisterns, as follows: This spring my cistern got quite filthy, and as I thought many angleworms in it, and we could scarcely use the water. I procured a couple of live fish and put them in the cistern, and since that time it has been free from worms and dirt, and smelt. The fish will live and grow fatly.

Nay, we know that in several instances it has been a decided injury.

TO FARMERS!

Pacific Guano Company's

SOLUBLE

PACIFIC GUANO!

PRICE REDUCED TO $56.00 PER TON.

THE USE OF THIS GUANO in Maryland for several years for Corn, Tobacco and other Spring Crops, as well as for Wheat, has established its excellence. It possesses all the quickness of Peruvian Guano, with permanent qualities not possessed by that article.

Experience has shown that this Guano ripens the Wheat crop from five to six days earlier than the Super Phosphates. It also ripens Tobacco earlier, and produces a crop of better quality. The Pacific Guano Company has authorized the above reduction in consequence of the depressed condition of the farming interests in the Southern States. It is the purpose of the Company to furnish the best fertilizer at the lowest price, which they are able to do by reason of their large capital and facilities. The Guano is warranted same in quality as heretofore sold by us.

AGENTS AND DEALERS IN PIANOS & CABINET ORGANS, MELODEONS, AND ALL KINDS OF

respectfully inform the public that they are prepared to furnish Pianos of the following manufacture or of any other make that may be preferred:

Albright, Reiken & Schmidt, Bradbury, Chickering & Son, Knabe & Son, Gale & Son,

ENTRY'S CELEBRATED

COTTAGE, HARMONIC AND BOUDOIR ORGANS AND MELODEONS.

These Instruments stand unrivalled by any thing found in this country or in Europe, as is admitted by all impartial judges. The most eminent Pipe Organ Builders and Performers, the last to discover excellence in reed Tone, pronounced them vastly superior to all others for exceedingly quick articulation and round Tone, the essential feature in Instruments of this class. We invite the severe scrutiny and criticism of all.

PATENT VOX HUMANA TREMOLO.

This late and most wonderful invention (so acknowledged by all leading artists) will be found only in the Estey Instruments. In attempting to describe the effect of this stop, we are at loss for language. Its beauties cannot be written, but must be heard to be appreciated. By this stop an ordinary performer can produce an effect which requires a life time of practice for an artist upon a violin. It entirely changes the reed Tone, giving the sympathetic sweetness of the human voice, making it so melodious and pure that it never fails to enchant the listener.

THE HARMONIC ORGAN

for Churches, Public Halls and Parlors has a powerful sub-Bass with independent reeds, Harmonic attachment and Vox Humana Tremolo, and is believed to be the most powerful reed organ made, being nearly equal to a Pipe Organ of three times the cost.

All instruments warranted for five years.

☞BRASS BANDS supplied with instruments and music at reasonable terms.
